Date: 03/04/2023

NOTICE

Whereas, your mining lease bearing T. C. No. 29/51 came to an end by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 on 31/03/2020.

And whereas, the provision 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 states as under:

“(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (2), (3) and sub-section (4), the period of lease granted before the date of commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Amendment Act, 2015 (10 of 2015), where mineral is used for other than captive purpose, shall be extended and be deemed to have been extended up to a period ending on the 31st March, 2020 with effect from the date of expiry of the period of renewal last made or till the completion of renewal period, if any, or a period of fifty years from the date of grant of such lease, whichever is later, subject to the condition that all the terms and conditions of the lease have been complied with.”

And whereas, by virtue of aforesaid, more than 6 months have elapsed after the expiry of your lease.

Now, therefore the Government of Goa hereby directs the erstwhile leaseholder/you, whose lease/leases came to an end on 31/03/2020 by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 to comply with the provisions of Rule 12 (1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016 within a period of one calendar month, from the date of issue of this Notice, failing which further necessary action will be initiated as deemed appropriate in terms of the MMDR Act, 1957 and the Rules made there under.

And whereas, vide directions in the Order dated 11th November 2013, the Hon'ble Supreme Court directed that an inventory of the excavated mineral ores lying in different mines/stockyards/jetties/ports in the State of Goa may be made and thereafter the whole of the inventorised mineral ores be sold by e-auction. Therefore, notwithstanding to the provision of rule 12(1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016, you are not entitled to remove/transport any ore/mineral from the lease area.

Whereas, your mining lease bearing T. C. No. 22/51 came to an end by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 on 31/03/2020.

And whereas, the provision 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 states as under:

“(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (2), (3) and sub-section (4), the period of lease granted before the date of commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Amendment Act, 2015 (10 of 2015), where mineral is used for other than captive purpose, shall be extended and be deemed to have been extended up to a period ending on the 31st March, 2020 with effect from the date of expiry of the period of renewal last made or till the completion of renewal period, if any, or a period of fifty years from the date of grant of such lease, whichever is later, subject to the condition that all the terms and conditions of the lease have been complied with.”

And whereas, by virtue of aforesaid, more than 6 months have elapsed after the expiry of your lease.

Now, therefore the Government of Goa hereby directs the erstwhile leaseholder/you, whose lease/leases came to an end on 31/03/2020 by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 to comply with the provisions of Rule 12 (1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016 within a period of one calendar month, from the date of issue of this Notice, failing which further necessary action will be initiated as deemed appropriate in terms of the MMDR Act, 1957 and the Rules made there under.

And whereas, vide directions in the Order dated 11th November 2013, the Hon'ble Supreme Court directed that an inventory of the excavated mineral ores lying in different mines/stockyards/jetties/ports in the State of Goa may be made and thereafter the whole of the inventorised mineral ores be sold by e-auction. Therefore, notwithstanding to the provision of rule 12(1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016, you are not entitled to remove/transport any ore/mineral from the lease area.

Whereas, your mining lease bearing T. C. No. 22/53 came to an end by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 on 31/03/2020.

And whereas, the provision 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 states as under:

“(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (2), (3) and sub-section (4), the period of lease granted before the date of commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Amendment Act, 2015 (10 of 2015), where mineral is used for other than captive purpose, shall be extended and be deemed to have been extended up to a period ending on the 31st March, 2020 with effect from the date of expiry of the period of renewal last made or till the completion of renewal period, if any, or a period of fifty years from the date of grant of such lease, whichever is later, subject to the condition that all the terms and conditions of the lease have been complied with.”

And whereas, by virtue of aforesaid, more than 6 months have elapsed after the expiry of your lease.

Now, therefore the Government of Goa hereby directs the erstwhile leaseholder/you, whose lease/leases came to an end on 31/03/2020 by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 to comply with the provisions of Rule 12 (1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016 within a period of one calendar month, from the date of issue of this Notice, failing which further necessary action will be initiated as deemed appropriate in terms of the MMDR Act, 1957 and the Rules made there under.

And whereas, vide directions in the Order dated 11th November 2013, the Hon'ble Supreme Court directed that an inventory of the excavated mineral ores lying in different mines/stockyards/jetties/ports in the State of Goa may be made and thereafter the whole of the inventorised mineral ores be sold by e-auction. Therefore, notwithstanding to the provision of rule 12(1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016, you are not entitled to remove/transport any ore/mineral from the lease area.

Date: 03/04/2023

NOTICE

Whereas, your mining lease bearing T. C. No. 23/56 came to an end by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 on 31/03/2020.

And whereas, the provision 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 states as under:

“(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (2), (3) and sub-section (4), the period of lease granted before the date of commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Amendment Act, 2015 (10 of 2015), where mineral is used for other than captive purpose, shall be extended and be deemed to have been extended up to a period ending on the 31st March, 2020 with effect from the date of expiry of the period of renewal last made or till the completion of renewal period, if any, or a period of fifty years from the date of grant of such lease, whichever is later, subject to the condition that all the terms and conditions of the lease have been complied with.”

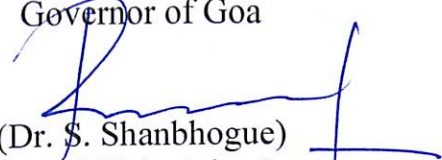

And whereas, by virtue of aforesaid, more than 6 months have elapsed after the expiry of your lease.

Now, therefore the Government of Goa hereby directs the erstwhile leaseholder/you, whose lease/leases came to an end on 31/03/2020 by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 to comply with the provisions of Rule 12 (1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016 within a period of one calendar month, from the date of issue of this Notice, failing which further necessary action will be initiated as deemed appropriate in terms of the MMDR Act, 1957 and the Rules made there under.

By order and in the name of
Governor of Goa

NOTICE

Whereas, your mining lease bearing T. C. No.81/52 came to an end by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 on 31/03/2020.

And whereas, the provision 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 states as under:

“(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (2), (3) and sub-section (4), the period of lease granted before the date of commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Amendment Act, 2015 (10 of 2015), where mineral is used for other than captive purpose, shall be extended and be deemed to have been extended up to a period ending on the 31st March, 2020 with effect from the date of expiry of the period of renewal last made or till the completion of renewal period, if any, or a period of fifty years from the date of grant of such lease, whichever is later, subject to the condition that all the terms and conditions of the lease have been complied with.”

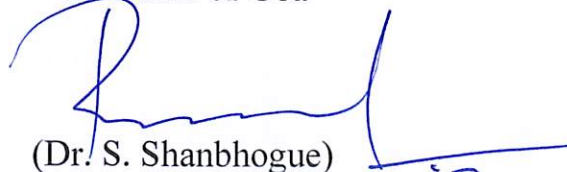

And whereas, by virtue of aforesaid, more than 6 months have elapsed after the expiry of your lease.

Now, therefore the Government of Goa hereby directs the erstwhile leaseholder/you, whose lease/leases came to an end on 31/03/2020 by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 to comply with the provisions of Rule 12 (1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016 within a period of one calendar month, from the date of issue of this Notice, failing which further necessary action will be initiated as deemed appropriate in terms of the MMDR Act, 1957 and the Rules made there under.

And whereas, vide directions in the Order dated 11th November 2013, the Hon'ble Supreme Court directed that an inventory of the excavated mineral ores lying in different mines/stockyards/jetties/ports in the State of Goa may be made and thereafter the whole of the inventorised mineral ores be sold by e-auction. Therefore, notwithstanding to the provision of rule 12(1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016, you are not entitled to remove/transport any ore/mineral from the lease area.

Whereas, your mining lease bearing T. C. No. 67/52 came to an end by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 on 31/03/2020.

And whereas, the provision 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 states as under:

“(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (2), (3) and sub-section (4), the period of lease granted before the date of commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Amendment Act, 2015 (10 of 2015), where mineral is used for other than captive purpose, shall be extended and be deemed to have been extended up to a period ending on the 31st March, 2020 with effect from the date of expiry of the period of renewal last made or till the completion of renewal period, if any, or a period of fifty years from the date of grant of such lease, whichever is later, subject to the condition that all the terms and conditions of the lease have been complied with.”

And whereas, by virtue of aforesaid, more than 6 months have elapsed after the expiry of your lease.

Now, therefore the Government of Goa hereby directs the erstwhile leaseholder/you, whose lease/leases came to an end on 31/03/2020 by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 to comply with the provisions of Rule 12 (1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016 within a period of one calendar month, from the date of issue of this Notice, failing which further necessary action will be initiated as deemed appropriate in terms of the MMDR Act, 1957 and the Rules made there under.

And whereas, vide directions in the Order dated 11th November 2013, the Hon'ble Supreme Court directed that an inventory of the excavated mineral ores lying in different mines/stockyards/jetties/ports in the State of Goa may be made and thereafter the whole of the inventorised mineral ores be sold by e-auction. Therefore, notwithstanding to the provision of rule 12(1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016, you are not entitled to remove/transport any ore/mineral from the lease area.

Now, therefore the Government of Goa hereby directs the erstwhile leaseholder/you, whose lease/leases came to an end on 31/03/2020 by virtue of the provision of 8-A (6) of MMDR Act, 1957 to comply with the provisions of Rule 12 (1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016 within a period of one calendar month, from the date of issue of this Notice, failing which further necessary action will be initiated as deemed appropriate in terms of the MMDR Act, 1957 and the Rules made there under.

And whereas, vide directions in the Order dated 11th November 2013, the Hon'ble Supreme Court directed that an inventory of the excavated mineral ores lying in different mines/stockyards/jetties/ports in the State of Goa may be made and thereafter the whole of the inventorised mineral ores be sold by e-auction. Therefore, notwithstanding to the provision of rule 12(1) (hh) of the Minerals (Other than Atomic and Hydrocarbons Energy Minerals) Concessions Rules, 2016, you are not entitled to remove/transport any ore/mineral from the lease area.
